To Mr. David Grahek

We Dedicate the 1968 Brecksonian

Mr. Grahek on his way home after a long day.

While working with the students on the Senior play, Mr. Grahek found that, often, even Seniors need encouragement.

In Appreciation

Mr. Grahek points out a few of the fundamentals of the French language to his class.

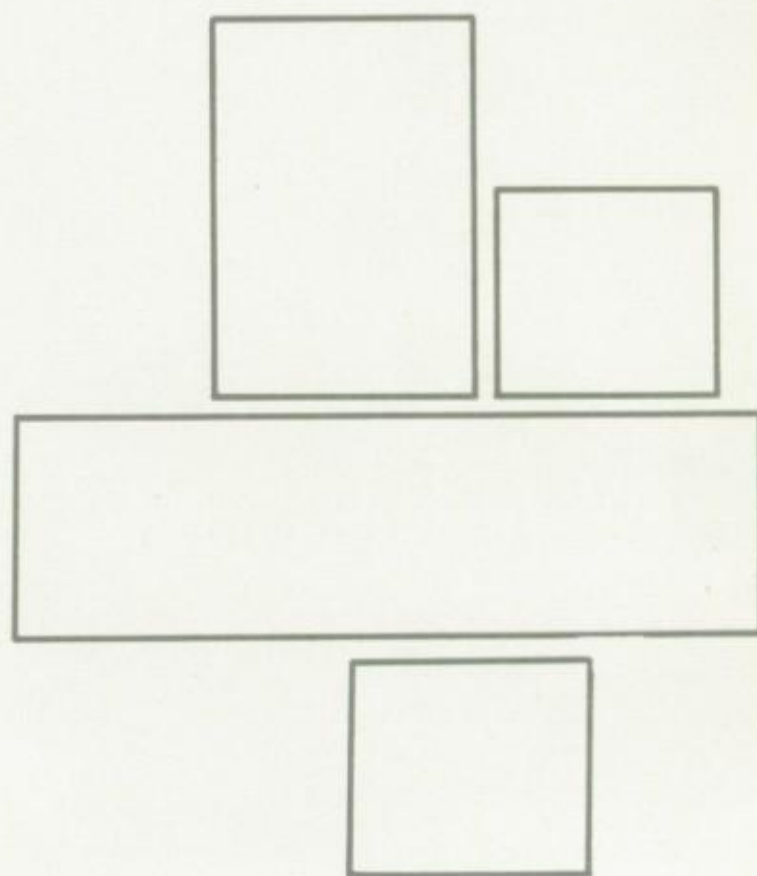

During the time Mr. Grahek has been at Breckenridge he has influenced many people, both as a teacher and an advisor. As a teacher he has always tried to teach a little more than was required, a little bit about life. As an advisor he has given encouragement and direction when it was needed most. Although his schedule is a very busy one, he always seems to find time to help those who need it.

Besides teaching French II, American and English Literature, and World History this year, Mr. Grahek, along with Mrs. Kirby, directed the Senior play. All these jobs are very important and take up much of his time, but to us on the Brecksonian staff his most important, and perhaps his most trying, job is the one as our advisor. Without his guidance and regulation it would be almost impossible to put out this yearbook.

To show our appreciation for his concern, we, the yearbook staff, along with the students and faculty, could find no better tribute than to dedicate the 1968 Brecksonian to him.

Cooks Custodians and Bus Drivers

Mrs. Alice Raymond, Head Cook

Cooks: Mrs. Furgason, Mrs. Sanchez, Mrs. Hook

The custodial staff keeps our school clean and in good repair. Therefore, their responsibility extends not only to the students and the administration but also to the community in general, which likes to feel a sense of pride in the facility in which their children are educated. The staff is headed by Mr. Herb Walters, pictured at the immediate left. To the left of Mr. Walters is Mr. R. V. Sanders. Below are Mr. Al Goward, Mrs. Alice Kennedy, and Mrs. Alice Northrup. We hope that the members of the custodial staff realize the appreciation felt by, if not always expressed by, all of the students, faculty, and administration. We also realize that it is part of our responsibility to keep the school as neat as we possibly can. We, too, must be proud.

Bus Drivers, Front Row: Mrs. Long, Rev. Scott, Mr. Belles

Help School Function Smoothly

Cooks: Mrs. Posey, Mrs. Edgecombe, Miss Gross, and Mrs. Shannon.

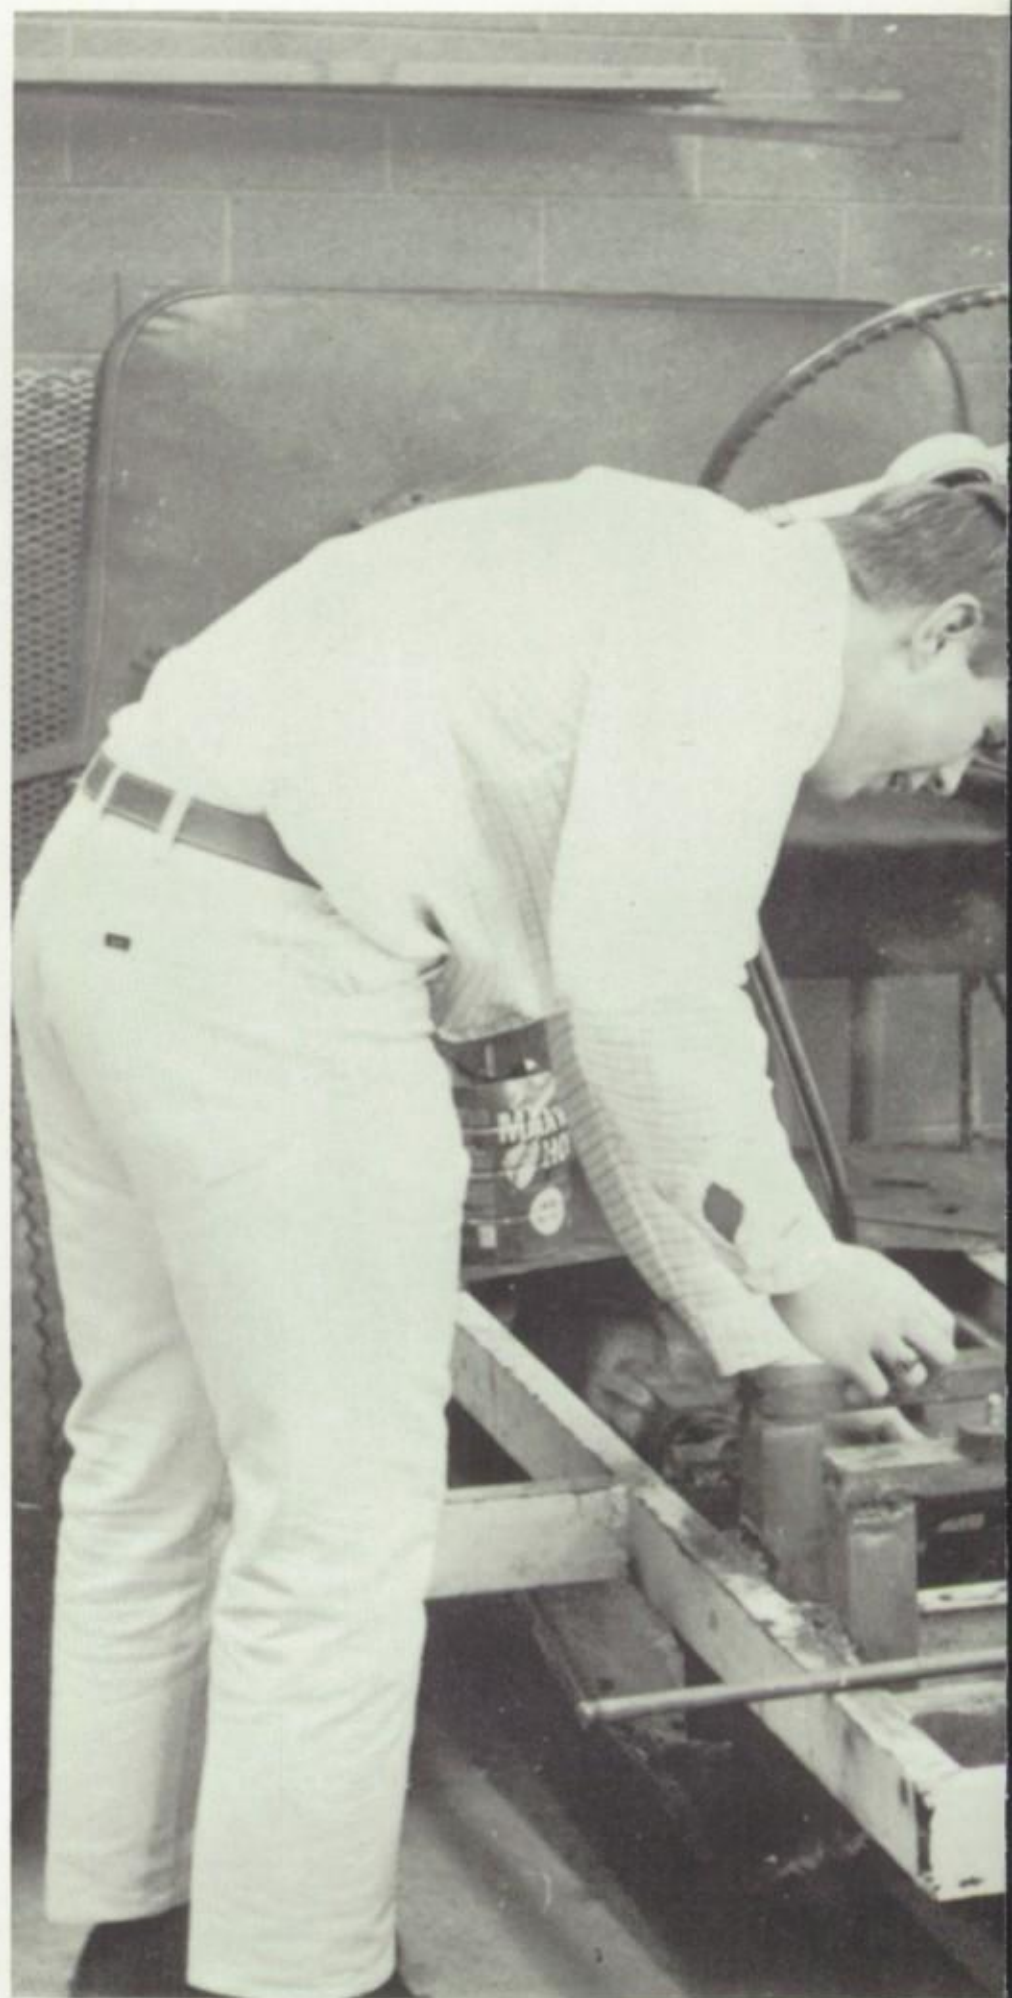

The cafeteria staff, headed by Mrs. Alice Raymond, has the responsibility of providing students who wish to eat at school with nourishing, well-balanced meals. The magnitude of this responsibility is not hard to realize when one considers that meals have to be planned and prepared every day that school is in session and that the staff must also maintain and clean up the cafetorium cooking area. The cafeteria staff well fulfills its function and is therefore deserving of the thanks and plaudits of the entire school-community.

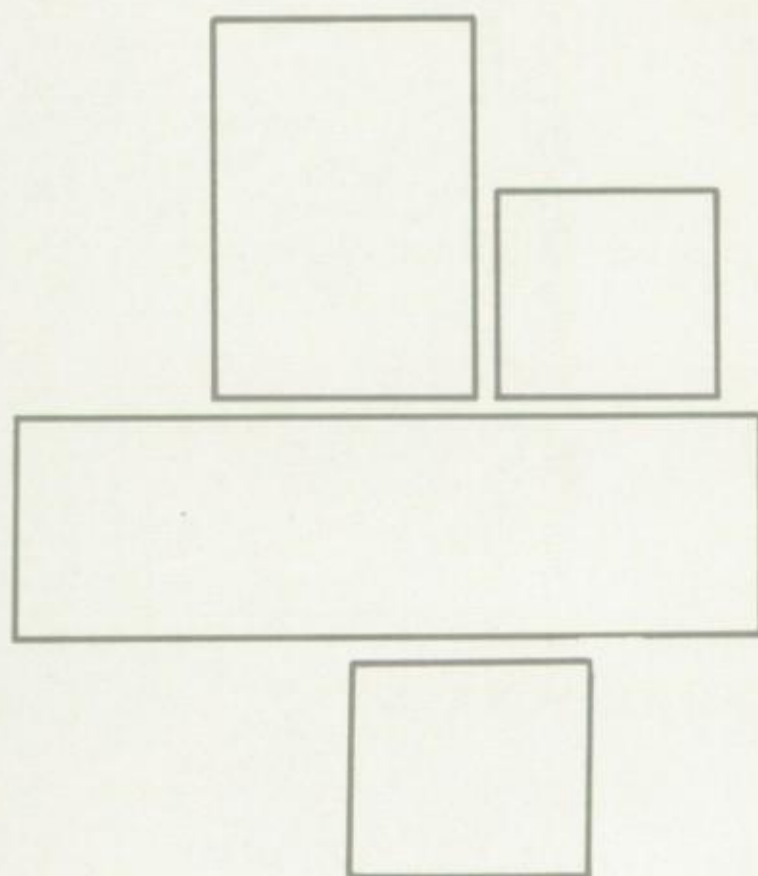

Mr. Storey, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Dunn, Mrs. Ostrander, Mrs. Qualls, Mr. Estrada. Back Row: Mr. Storey, Mr. Wertz.

Mr. Dewey Wertz is in charge of the overall co-ordination of bus drivers and their assignments. Besides being bus supervisor, Mr. Wertz is also associated with the athletic program in that he is responsible for setting up the gymnasium before each home basketball game.

Familiar Faces That Remind

Mrs. Sensabaugh, are you sure that's how we get ready to march for graduation?

Mrs. Kirby, better known as Fred to her speech class, is applying her favorite flavored lipstick. (chicken)

Did two years of us really tire you out that much Mr. Preshaw?

It's been a long four years for you Mr. Grahek, but you've finally made it. Celebrate by keeping that cup of coffee for yourself!!

Us of Our Last Year

Annita Bondeson, our Swedish exchange student, was attentively viewing one of our basketball games when this picture was taken.

Raija Lenio, our Finnish exchange student, is explaining some of the customs of her country to us.

"Oh no, don't take it now!"

"You Can't Take It With You", our senior class play, was a lot of fun. Annita really enjoyed her role!

Honored Seniors

Miss Pat Helsel, Valedictorian of the Class of 1968, is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Helsel of Wheeler. During her four years at Breckenridge High School, Miss Helsel has been taken part in many school activities as well as maintaining a high academic average. She participated in band during her freshman and sophomore years, girls' select chorus, and the Bible Club for four years. She has served her class as president during her junior year and this year served as Secretary of the Student Council, the second of her years as a member of the Council.

Also, Patricia was honored by the faculty and administration as well as by the students who nominated her for the honor of being the D.A.R. Good Citizen.

Miss Patricia Helsel, Valedictorian

Miss Rosemary Stover, Salutatorian

Miss Rosemary Stover, Salutatorian of the Class of 1968, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stover of Porter. Rosemary, too, has earned a high academic record while maintaining an active role in the extracurricular life of the school. During her freshman year, Rosemary was chosen by her fellow students to be president of her class. Rosemary has also been selected by her classmates as well as by the entire student body as a member of the Student Council. During her junior year Rosemary held the position of Student Council Secretary.

The past two years have been very active ones for Rosemary in that she has been associated with the Brecksonian staff. During her junior year Rosemary was assistant editor of the yearbook, her division page designs receiving recognition by practiced critics. This year Rosemary has been Editor-in-Chief of the annual.

The library is staffed by students who serve to aid other students in obtaining whatever instructional materials they need. The librarians are fortunate this year to have such a well-equipped library in which to work. Here students not only find reference and relaxation-reading materials but also have the opportunity to use audio-visual aids, recordings, such as Shakespeare's "Hamlet", movie projectors and films which are brought to the school through our library.

Varsity Rebuilds

Captain Bob Fenner attempts two free throws in the crucial Hemlock game.

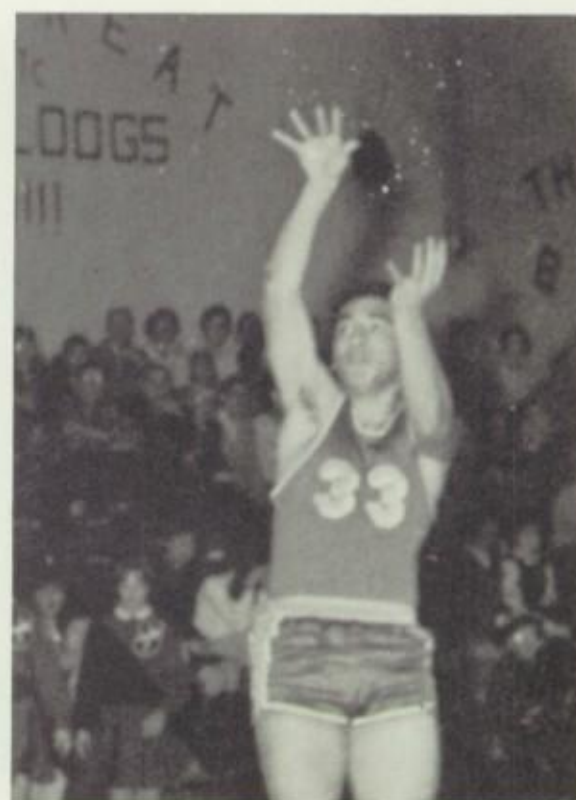

Coach John Britton and the Breckenridge Varsity had a tough season. Although they played well, they never seemed to get that one break that would mean the difference between victory and a loss in the close games the Huskies encountered. They stayed with Mount Pleasant Sacred Heart in two close games when the Irish were rated first in the state. Coach Britton is rebuilding and planning for the future. He started a young ballclub and will have all his starters back next year. The loss of Tom Strouse hurt the team somewhat, but Bob Fenner filled in quickly and did a fine job in leading the team as their captain.

This year's Junior Varsity team, under the guidance of Mr. Ron Etue, showed a great deal of determination and hustle in finishing high in the league standings. In the picture above Barry Edgar cruises in for a lay-up against Seminary while Tim Gallihugh moves into position for the rebound, if any. At the left is Kim Gee in the same game taking a fade-away jump shot while Kent Parfitt waits in excellent position.

a Spirit of Hustle and Desire

The Freshman Team represents one of the major sources of varsity teams of the future. It is during this time that ball players learn the skills and develop the attitudes which will be so necessary to their future careers in high school athletics. As Coach Henderson says, "It's always nice to win, but on this level (the freshman) the purpose is to build a firm foundation for varsity athletics. A boy who develops a desire to perform at his best and who realizes the importance of good sportsmanship is the kind of boy who will be a very good representative of his school."

As we can see by the picture on the left, basketball is not a matter of putting on a uniform the night of a game. It requires constant practice and sheer hard work. Here the boys are going through a lay-up drill.

Huskies Baseball

Under the leadership of Coach David 'Jake' Roberts, a fine nucleus of experienced ballplayers is returning, looking forward to a season of successful competition in the Central Michigan League. Returning players for 1968 Huskie baseball are: Bottom Row: Don Pavlik, senior infielder; Bob Fenner, junior infielder and pitcher; Jim Thompson, outfield; Mike Humphrey, infield; Bill Wertz, infield; Doug Dosson, outfield; Bob Ramirez, pitcher and outfield; Coach David 'Jake' Roberts. Back Row: Bob Anguiano, outfield; Greg Goodyear, catcher and outfield; Barry Decker, infield; Duane Boroughf, infield; David Aldrich, outfield; Joe Engle, infield and outfield; and Barry McCaw, infield.

and Track

Coach John Britton returns for his second year as head track coach. With a group of returning boys who have already shown the desire to compete in the lonliest sport, the squad hopes to improve on last year's season. Although the loss of Lester Moeller will be hard to overcome, the boys are confident that they can achieve an overall balance. Returning members of last year's team are: Gary Clark, shot put; Doug Bott, mile and two mile; Dave Huntoon, distance runs; Alva Kelley, dashes and sprints, Max Anguiano, hurdles; Tim Gallihugh, hurdles, Jim Zimmerman, middle distances; Doug Wolfgang, middle distances; Sam Sumner, distance and relays; Coach John Britton.

Coach Etue takes time out to discuss the situation with the team. Barry and Dave ponder the problem.

Activities

Queen Elaine Reigns

Homecoming started with a snake dance Thursday, October 5. Students danced through the streets of Breckenridge led by the Varsity and J.V. cheerleaders. When they arrived at the athletic field, where our J.V. football players beat Merrill later that evening, a Hemlock dummy was burned at the stake, and everyone watched as the ashes turned to dust.

Friday's Homecoming events began with a pep assembly. Everyone's spirit was high as we anticipated a victory game over Hemlock.

The Homecoming parade, with twenty-nine entries, began at the Jr.-Sr. High School parking lot. It was lead through town by the fire engine, color guards, and, close behind, the Sr. band. When the parade reached the athletic field, it circled the football field and dispersed.

At halftime, Breckenridge's Majorettes exhibited their talent, while each twirled two fire batons. The "Dynamic Drums" were featured in a lively "Latin Prelude".

The class representatives and queen nominees were then brought on the field, introduced, and escorted onto the platform to the music of "Autumn Leaves".

As tension grew and excitement exploded, last year's Homecoming queen Janice Herrington, caped and crowned Miss Elaine Darland as Breckenridge's 1967 Homecoming queen.

Sherry Telgenhoff and Mark Cronkite assisted Janice with pillow and crown. Mr. George Telgenhoff presented Queen Elaine with long-stemmed red roses and warm congratulations.

Queen Elaine and her lovely court then paraded around the football field to be recognized as worthy representatives for Breckenridge High School's 1967 Homecoming.

Even though she's too tearful and excited to smile, Elaine poses for a lovely picture.

This year's Seniors were cast in a play called, "You Can't Take It With You." Two performances were given for the public on December first and second.

"You Can't Take It With You" is about a family who believes in living in their own way. Often their way isn't quite acceptable to conventional society. Mr. Sycamore, the head of the household, and Mr. DaPinna manufacture fireworks in the basement of their home. Mr. DaPinna lives with the Sycamores because he came to the house one day to work, liked the people and stayed. Penny Sycamore writes plays because one day a typewriter was delivered to her house by mistake. Ed Carmichael plays the xylophone and prints things. Essie Carmichael takes ballet and makes candy called "Love Dreams." Grandpa's pastime is raising and going to graduation exercises. The Sycamores don't pay income tax because they don't believe in the things it is used for. Olga Katrina and Kolenkhoff are Russian refugees who add an international flair to the setting. Donald and Rheba are Negro servants. Donald works without pay for fear of being kicked off welfare.

The unusual qualities of her family cause problems for Alice Sycamore, who is a very conventional sort of girl. When she falls in love with the boss' son, how can she explain her family. But, somehow, she does.

The P.T.A. gym show began with the boys physical education class, under the leadership of Mr. Henderson, giving a demonstration of the exercises that they do to warm up before beginning activities.

Mrs. Nancy Sensabaugh's Girls' Phys. Ed. Classes also showed their skills in that they went through a tumbling routine in which they showed the basic methods used.

The boys' activities quickly became somewhat more strenuous as the junior high wrestlers from Coach Britton's class went into action. Here David Pavlik and Mark Breasbois strain for a pin while Coach Britton and two other wrestlers look on.

Carole Aldrich, just about to do a handspring, is caught in mid-air.

Vickie Bigelow, with the aid of Mrs. Sensabaugh, Carole Aldrich, Pat Gallagher, and Amy Carter as spotters, demonstrated the proper use of the trampoline.

Editors' Letter

Another year is nearly at an end. We hope you have enjoyed looking back over the things that have happened and the people who were involved. It has been a good year, and those of us leaving will always remember it. We would like to thank all those who helped to immortalize it in the pages of the 1968 Brecksonian.

To the staff goes our thanks. They are the real creators of the book.

We would like to thank Mr. Oseland, David Hite, Doug Dosson, and Bill Ancel for the many hours they spent taking and developing pictures. Also our thanks to Mr. Belles of the SAGINAW VALLEY SHOPPER for taking most of the football pictures, providing us with other needed pictures and for allowing us to use his darkroom facilities, and for all the other help he has given us.

We would also like to thank Mr. Howard, our I.C.P. representative, who helped us so very much.

But our deepest thanks goes to Mr. Grahek, our advisor; for the many extra hours he spent, working on the book and helping others to get done.

To everyone again, thank you.
